OLIVER W GROW 0296298, Infantry, Captain, Company B, 180th Infantry Regiment, for heroic achievement in action on 20-21 March 1945 near Homburg, Germany. When his battalion commander, who was leading a task force through the Siegfried Line to make contact with friendly elements, was wounded, Captain Grow assumed full command of the task force. When the force approached an enemy town, Captain Grow made a successful reconnaissance, and then led his men on a maneuver which surrounded the town and resulted in the capture of a large number of prisoners. Quickly reorganizing his men, Captain Grow then led the force to the successful completion of its mission. Entered the military service from Roxborough, Pennsylvania.

LAWRENCE HAND 42138331, Infantry, Private First Class, Company G, 180th Infantry Regiment, for heroic achievement in action on 17 March 1945 near Aarsweiler, Germany. When the advance of his platoon was halted by heavy fire from an enemy pillbox, Private Hand crept forward under enemy fire for a distance of over fifty yards and launched several rounds from his bazooka into the pillbox. This action so reduced the volume of enemy fire that the platoon was able to continue its advance and to overcome the enemy resistance. Entered the military service from Bronx, New York.

HENRY D LANTRY 32045893, Infantry, Staff Sergeant, Company M, 180th Infantry Regiment, for heroic achievement in action on 15 October 1944 near Framfontaine, France. Sergeant Lantry, although exposed to heavy enemy machine gun and small arms fire, crawled to a position from which he could direct mortar fire on an enemy force which had encircled a friendly platoon. He succeeded in disorganizing the enemy with his accurate mortar fire, enabling the encircled platoon to reach new positions. Sergeant Lantry's heroic action reflects credit upon himself and his organization. Entered the military service from Helena, New York.

GERALD E TREMMEL 33257331, Infantry, Private First Class (then Private), Company M, 180th Infantry Regiment, for heroic achievement in action on 21 October 1944 near Framfontaine, France. During an enemy counterattack the increments and ammunition in Private Tremmel's mortar position were set afire. Realizing that if the fire were allowed to continue, it would cause an explosion of several hundred rounds of ammunition stacked nearby, Private Tremmel, disregarding personal safety, promptly extinguished the blaze, suffering second degree burns in so doing. He then continued his firing mission and was instrumental in repulsing the enemy counterattack. Entered the military service from Cleveland, Ohio.

CLARENCE O WOLFE 35097007, Infantry, Staff Sergeant, Company F, 180th Infantry Regiment, for heroic achievement in action on 19 April 1945 near Hurnberg, Germany. As Sergeant Wolfe was investigating the basement of a house, an enemy soldier threw a hand grenade at him. Escaping injury and after a period of waiting, Sergeant Wolfe threw a grenade in the direction of the enemy and immediately followed it with fire from his rifle. His action wounded several of the enemy and so demoralized the remainder that they surrendered. Entered the military service from Indianapolis, Indiana.
