What Is Domestic Violence?

Domestic Violence is described as an act of aggression, it can be in the form of physical or mental abuse.

Who Can Get Help?

If you are any of the following:

- 1) Current or former spouses
- 2) Persons of opposite sex who live together or have lived together
- 3) Are related as parents and children
- 4) Have a child in common
- 5) Current or former household members
- 6) Persons of the opposite sex who are in a dating relationship or have been in a dating relationship

How Can I Get Help?

There are several agencies in each county that can provide assistance in obtaining a Domestic Violence Protection Order also known as a 50B Order or as a Restraining Order.

Do I Need An Attorney?

You can file for a Domestic Violence Protection order Pro Se (meaning you can represent yourself) but you don't have to do it alone. We can help.
