1. Communists halt movement of goods into Korea:

National Security Unusual and unexplained stoppages in North Korean shipping and rail activity Agency 3 Apr 53 are revealed from analysis of recent North CANOE 0/KC/R-18-53 10 March, rail officials halted the shipment of petroleum into Korea from Tumen, Manchuria, while a local maritime transportation office revealed that all shipping had been discontinued as of 16 March.

Comment: Although these messages preceded the Communist truce proposals by some two weeks, it is possible that the above action may have been taken in anticipation of an early cease-fire. In the past, stoppages have been occasioned by either the lack of storagefacilities or damaged rail lines in North Korea, but these factors are not known to be responsible in the present case.

Z.	South	Korea	urges	bilateral	defense	pact with	US:

	South Korean Foreign Minister Pyun has strongly urged that the US Government enter into a bilateral defense pact with Korea. Ambassador Briggs suggests that such a pact may be Korean opposition to an	a quid pro quo for the withdrawal of South

Comment: This is the first suggestion that the South Korean Government might agree to an armistice which would leave Korea divided. During the past week, South Korean legislative and executive officials have expressed opposition to an armistice as currently contemplated by the UN.
