ROLL OF HONOR;

BEING A

RECORD OF THE MEDALS OF HONOR ISSUED TO THE ENLISTED MEN AND MARINES OF THE NAVY, UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES, FOR DEEDS OF GALLANTRY AND HEROISM IN TIMES OF WAR AND PEACE.

This record of the enlisted men who have shed luster upon the service by upholding the honor of the flag in storm and battle, by their devotion to the country and to each other, and by their unselfishness in risking their own lives to save others, is especially commended to the rising generation of American seamen, that they may emulate the deeds of their heroic predecessors, and maintain that high standard of gallantry which has always characterized the personnel of the United States naval service.

Published by direction of Hon. W. C. WHITNEY, Secretary of the Navy.

Revised and corrected by Bureau of Equipment and Recruiting.

ROLL OF HONOR.

MICHAEL AHEAM.

Paymaster's steward on board of the U. S. S. Kearsarge, when she destroyed the Alabama, off Cherbourg, France, June 19, 1864; "exhibited marked coolness and good conduct, and is highly commended by his divisional officer."

AARON ANDERSON.

Landsman (colored) on board of the U. S. S. Wyandank, during a boat expedition up Mattox Creek, March 17, 1865; was reported by his commanding officer as having rendered gallant assistance, loading the howitzer while lying on his back, and then firing with such care and precision as to kill and wound many of the rebel party.

ROBERT ANDERSON.

Quartermaster on board of the U. S. S. Crusader and Keokuk; exhibited in the former vessel, on all occasions, in various skirmishes and fights, the greatest intrepidity and devotion. In the latter vessel, during the attack on Charleston, was stationed at the wheel, and when the shot penetrated, scattering the iron, desired to cover his commanding officer with his person. Promoted to acting master's mate.

WILLIAM ANDERSON.

Cockswain on the U. S. S. Powhatan; for rescuing from drowning W. H. Moffatt, first class boy, on the 28th of June, 1878.

JOHN ANDREWS.

Ordinary seaman on board of the U. S. S. Benicia; was stationed at the lead in passing the forts in Corea, June 9 and 10, 1871. Standing on the gunwale of the Benicia's launch, lashed to the ridge-rope, he remained unflinching in this dangerous position, and gave his soundings with coolness and accuracy under a heavy fire.

JOHN ANGLING.

Boy on board of the U. S. S. Pontoosuc; commended for gallantry, skill, and coolness in action during the operations in and about Cape Fear River, which extended from December 24, 1864, to January 22, 1865, and resulted in the capture of Fort Fisher and Wilmington.

MATTHEW ARTHUR.

Signal quartermaster on board of the U. S. S. Carondelet, at the reduction of Forts Henry and Donelson, February 6 and 14, 1862, and other actions, "most faithfully, effectively, and valiantly performed all the duties of signal quartermaster and captain of rifled bow gun, and was conspicuous for valor and devotion."

CHARLES ASTEN.

Quarter-gunner on board of the U. S. S. Signal, which vessel was attacked by field batteries and sharpshooters and destroyed, in Red River, May 5, 1864. "He was on the sick list, but did duty during the whole of the engagement."

THOMAS ATKINSON.

Yeoman on board of the U. S. S. Richmond, Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864; commended for coolness and energy in supplying the rifle ammunition, which was under his sole charge, in the action in Mobile Bay on the morning and forenoon of August 5, 1864. He was a petty officer on board of the U. S. frigate Congress, in 1842-'46; was present and assisted in capturing the whole of the Buenos Ayrean fleet by that vessel, off Montevideo; joined the Richmond in September, 1860; was in the actions with Fort McRea; the head of the passes of the Mississippi; Forts Jackson and St. Philip; the Chalmettes; the rebel ironclads and gunboats below New Orleans; Vicksburg, Port Hudson, and at the surrender of New Orleans.

J. F. AUER.

Ordinary seaman apprentice; for jumping overboard from the U. S. S. Lancaster, November 20, 1883, at Marseilles, France, and rescuing from drowning a French lad who had fallen into the sea from a stone pier astern of the ship.

JAMES AVERY.

Seaman on board the U. S. S. Metacombet; was one of the boat's crew which, in charge of Acting Ensign H. C. Neilds, of the U. S. Navy, went to the rescue of the officers and crew of the U. S. monitor Tecumseh, when that vessel was sunk by a torpedo in passing the forts in Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864. This boat's crew, under their brave and gallant leader, went within a few hundred yards of one of the forts under a fire which Admiral Farragut expressed as "one of the most galling" he ever saw, and succeeded in rescuing from death ten of the crew of the Tecumseh. Their conduct elicited the admiration of both friend and foe.

HENRY BAKER.

Quarter-gunner on board the U. S. S. Metacomet, was one of the boat's crew which, in charge of Acting Ensign H. C. Neilds, of the U. S. Navy, went to the rescue of the officers and crew of the U. S. monitor Tecumseh, when that vessel was sunk by a torpedo in passing the forts in Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864. This boat's crew, under their brave and gallant leader, went within a few hundred yards of one of the forts, under a fire which Admiral Farragut expressed as "one of the most galling" he ever saw, and succeeded in rescuing from death ten of the crew of the Tecumseh. Their conduct elicited the admiration of both friend and foe.

CHARLES BALDWIN.

Coal-heaver on board of the U. S. S. Wyalusing; volunteered May 25, 1864, in a night attempt to destroy the rebel ram Albermarle, in Roanoke River, and although it was unsuccessful, he displayed courage, zeal, and unwearied exertion on the occasion. Promoted to acting master's mate.

JAMES BARNUM.

Boatswain's mate on board of the U. S. S. New Ironsides; commended for highly meritorious conduct during the several engagements with Fort Fisher, in December, 1864, and January, 1865.

EDWARD BARRETT.

Second-class fireman on board the U. S. S. Alaska; for hauling the fires from under the boiler after the stop-valve chamber had been ruptured, at Callao Bay, Peru, September 14, 1881.

GURDON H. BARTER.

Landsman on board of the U. S. S. Minnesota; especially commended for bravery in the assault on Fort Fisher, remaining at the front near the fort when the panic carried the mass away.

THOMAS C. BARTON.

Seaman on board of the U. S. S. Hunchback, in the attack upon Franklin, Va., October 3, 1862; mentioned for heroic conduct. Promoted to acting master's mate.

DAVID L. BASS.

Seaman on board of the U. S. S. Minnesota; especially commended for bravery in the assault on Fort Fisher, remaining at the front near the fort when the panic carried the mass away.

RICHARD BATES.

Seaman of the U. S. S. De Soto; for heroic conduct in rescuing from drowning James Rose and John Russell, seamen, of the U. S. S. Winooski, off Eastport, Me., May 10, 1866.

PHILIP BAZAAR.

Ordinary seaman on board the U. S. S. Santiago de Cuba; was one of the boat's crew detailed for General Terry. The five men forming this boat's crew were represented to have been the only men who entered Fort Fisher in the assault from the fleet, January 15, 1865.

GEORGE BELL.

Captain of the afterguard on board of the U. S. S. Santee; was pilot of the boat engaged in cutting out the rebel armed schooner Royal Yacht from Galveston Bay, November 7, 1861, and evinced more coolness, in passing the four forts and the rebel steamer General Rusk, than was ever before witnessed by his commanding officer. "Although severely wounded in the encounter, he displayed extraordinary courage, under the most painful and trying circumstances."

W. H. BERPITT.

Captain of afterguard on the U. S. S. Monocacy, for jumping overboard from that vessel at Foochow, China, on the morning of October 7, 1884, and sustaining, until picked up, a Chinaman who had been thrown into the water by the capsizing of a canoe.

JAMES BENSON.

Seaman on board of the U. S. S. Ossipee, June 20, 1872; at the imminent risk of his life, jumped into the sea, when the ship was going at a speed of four knots, and endeavored to save John K. Smith, landsman, of the same vessel, from drowning.

ASA BETHAM.

Cockswain on board of the U. S. S. Pontoosuc; commended for gallantry, skill, and coolness in action during the operations in and about

Cape Fear River, which extended from December 24, 1864, to January 22, 1865, and resulted in the capture of Fort Fisher and Wilmington.

CHARLES J. BIBBER.

Gunner's mate on board of the U. S. S. Agawam; one of the crew of the powder-boat which was exploded near Fort Fisher, December 23, 1864, for which service he volunteered.

JOHN F. BICKFORD.

Captain of top on board of the U. S. S. Kearsarge when she destroyed the Alabama, off Cherbourg, France, June 19, 1864; "exhibited marked coolness and good conduct, and is highly commended by his divisional officer." Promoted to acting master's mate.

WILLIAM BLAGEEN.

Ship's cook on board of the U. S. S. Brooklyn in the engagement in Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864; conspicuous for bravery, performing his duty in the powder division, at a point where the ship was riddled very much, and in the immediate vicinity of the shell-whips, which were twice cleared of men by bursting shells.

ROBERT M. BLAIR.

Boatswain's mate on board of the U. S. S. Pontoosuc; commended for gallantry, skill, and coolness in action during the operations in and about Cape Fear River, which extended from December 24, 1864, to January 22, 1865, and resulted in the capture of Fort Fisher and Wilmington.

ROBERT BLAKE.

Contraband on board of the U. S. S. Marblehead in the engagement with the rebel batteries on Stono River, December 25, 1863; serving as a powder-boy, displayed extraordinary courage, alacrity, and intelligence in the discharge of his duties under trying circumstances, and merited the admiration of all.

FRANK BOIS.

Quartermaster on board of the U. S. S. Cincinnati in an attack on the Vicksburg batteries, May 27, 1863; coolness in making signals and in nailing the flag to the stump of the forestaff under a heavy fire.

WILLIAM BOND.

Boatswain's mate on board of the U. S. S. Kearsarge when she destroyed the Alabama, off Cherbourg, France, June 19, 1864; "exhibited marked coolness and good conduct, and is highly commended by his divisional officer.

THOMAS BOURNE.

Seaman and gun captain on board of the U. S. S. Varuna, in the attacks upon Forts Jackson and St. Philip, April 24, 1862; mentioned as having done his "duty through the thickest of the fight with great coolness and danger to the enemy."

EDWARD R. BOWMAN.

Quartermaster on board of the U. S. S. Ticonderoga in the attacks on Fort Fisher; "commended for good conduct throughout the action, in which he was badly wounded, and bore his sufferings with great fortitude."

ALEXANDER BRADLEY.

Landsman on board of the U. S. S. Wachusett; jumped overboard off Cowes, August 7, 1872, in a strong tide-way, to save Philip Cassidy, landsman, of the U. S. S. Wabash, from drowning.

AMOS BRADLEY.

Landsman on board of the U. S. S. Varuna in the attack upon Forts Jackson and St. Philip, April 24, 1862; "stood at the wheel the whole time, although guns were raking the deck from behind him." "His position was one of the most responsible on the ship, and he did his duty to the utmost."

CHARLES BRADLEY.

Boatswain's mate; first captain of 9-inch gun on board of the U. S. S. Louisville; especially commended for his attention to duty, bravery, and coolness in action.

JOHN BRAZELL.

Quartermaster on the U. S. S. Richmond; recommended for coolness and good conduct in the action in Mobile Bay, on the morning and forenoon of August 5, 1864. He was in the Brooklyn in the actions with Forts Jackson and St. Philip; the Chalmettees; batteries below Vicksburg, and present at the surrender of New Orleans. Joined the Richmond in 1863.

JOHN BREEN.

Boatswain's mate on board of the U. S. S. Commodore Perry in the attack upon Franklin, Va., October 3, 1862; distinguished for his gallant conduct.

CHRISTOPHER BRENNEN.

Seaman on board of the U. S. S. Mississippi (but belonging to the Colorado) in the capture of Forts St. Philip and Jackson, and New Orleans, April 24 and 25, 1862; attracted the particular attention of his commanding officer by his "courageous example to those around him. Was the life and soul of the gun's crew."

ANDREW BRINN.

Seaman on board of the U. S. S. Mississippi in the attack on the Port Hudson batteries, night of March 14, 1863; commended for zeal and courage displayed in the performance of unusual and trying service whilst the vessel was aground and exposed to a heavy fire.

CHARLES BROWN.

Corporal of marines, U. S. S. Colorado, assisted in capturing the Co-rean standard in the center of the citadel of the Co-rean Fort, June 11, 1871.

ROBERT BROWN.

Captain of top on board the U. S. S. Richmond, Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864; commended for coolness and good conduct in the action in Mobile Bay, on the morning and forenoon of August 5, 1864. He was on board the Westfield in the actions with Forts Jackson and St. Philip; the Chalmettes; and present at the surrender of New Orleans, also with the batteries at Vicksburg. Joined the Richmond in September, 1863.

JOHN BROWN.

Captain of afterguard on board of the U. S. S. De Soto; heroic conduct with two comrades, in rescuing from drowning James Rose and John Russell, seamen, of the U. S. S. Winooski, off Eastport, Me., May 10, 1866.

JOHN BROWN.

Captain of fore-castle on board of the U. S. S. Brooklyn, in the engagement in Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864; very conspicuous for bravery, skill, coolness, and activity at his gun.

JAMES BROWN.

Quartermaster on board of the U. S. S. Albatross, in the action with Fort De Russy, May 4, 1863. After the steering-wheel and wheel ropes had been shot away he stood on the gun platform of the quarter-deck, exposing his person to a close fire of musketry from the shore, and rendered invaluable assistance by his expert management of the relieving tackles in extricating the vessel from a perilous position.

WILSON BROWN.

Landsman on board of the U. S. S. Hartford in the engagement in Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864; "was stationed at the shell-whip on the berth-deck. A man was killed on the ladder above him and thrown with such violence against Brown as to knock him into the hold, where he lay for a short time senseless; but on recovering, he immediately returned to his station, though, besides himself, only one of the original six belonging there had escaped."

WILLIAM H. BROWN.

Landsman on board of the U. S. S. Brooklyn in the engagement in Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864; conspicuous for bravery, performing his duty in the powder division, at a point where the ship was riddled very much, and in the immediate vicinity of the shell-whips, which were twice cleared of men by bursting shells. Was also wounded.

WILLIAM P. BROWNELL.

Cockswain on board of the U. S. S. Benton; conspicuous for skill and courage as captain of 9 inch gun in the attacks on Great Gulf, May 3, 1863, and Vicksburg, May 22, 1863, also in serving at Battery Beuton before Vicksburg.

HENRY BRUTSCHE.

Landsman on board of the U. S. S. Tacony. At the capture of Plymouth, October 31, 1864, he landed and spiked a loaded 9-inch gun under a sharp fire of musketry.

DAVID M. BUCHANAN.

Apprentice serving on board of the U. S. S. Saratoga. On the morning of July 15, 1879; while that vessel was anchored off the Battery, New York Harbor, Robert Lee Robey, apprentice, fell overboard from the after-part of the ship. The tide was running strong ebb at the time, and Robey not being an expert swimmer was in danger of drowning. Buchanan instantly sprang over the rail after him, without hesitating an instant to remove even a portion of his clothing. They were later picked up by the ship's boat.

JAMES BUCK.

Quartermaster on board of the U. S. S. Brooklyn in the attack upon Forts Jackson and St. Philip, and at the taking of New Orleans, April 24 and 25, 1862. "Stationed at the wheel." "Early in the fight was painfully wounded by a heavy splinter, but for seven hours stood bravely at his post, refusing to go below until positively ordered to do so." "Next morning stole to his station and steered the ship over eight hours." Promoted to acting master's mate.

THOMAS BURKE.

Seaman on board of the U. S. S. De Soto; heroic conduct, with two comrades, in rescuing from drowning James Rose and John Russell, seamen, of the U. S. S. Winooski, off Eastport, Me., May 10, 1866.

JOHN M. BURNS.

Seaman on board of the U. S. S. Lackawanna; severely wounded and sent below under the surgeon's charge; would not remain unemphed, but assisted the powder division until the action was over.

ALBERT BURTON.

Seaman on board of the U. S. S. Wabash; mentioned for gallant conduct in the assault on Fort Fisher, January 15, 1865, and as having entered the stockade.

GEORGE BUTTS.

Gunner's mate on board of the U. S. S. Signal, which vessel was attacked by field batteries and sharpshooters, and destroyed in Red River, May 5, 1864. "He was on the sick list, but did duty during the whole of the engagement."

JAMES BYRNES.

Boatswain's mate; first captain of 9-inch gun on board of the U. S. S. Louisville; "especially commended for his attention to duty, bravery, and coolness in action." Promoted to acting master's mate.

WILLIAM M. CARR.

Master-at-arms on board of the U. S. S. Richmond, Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864; commended for coolness, energy, and zeal in the action of Mobile Bay on the morning and forenoon of August 5, 1864. Volunteered to direct, under the orders of the commander of the division, the passing of shells from the shell-rooms, in addition to his duties connected with the care of lights, which he performed most satisfactorily. Has been master-at arms on board the Richmond since September, 1860; was in the actions with Fort McRea; at the head of the passes of the Mississippi; Forts Jackson and St. Philip; the Chalmettes; the rebel iron-clads and gunboats below New Orleans; Vicksburg; Port Hudson; and present at the surrender of New Orleans.

WILLIAM CAMPBELL.

Boatswain's mate on board of the U. S. S. Ticonderoga, in the attacks on Fort Fisher, December 24 and 25, 1864, and January 13, 14, and 15, 1865. "Commended for coolness and good conduct as captain of a gun."

JAMES CAREY.

Seaman on board of the U. S. S. Huron; saving three shipmates from drowning.

MICHAEL CASSIDY.

Landsman on board of the U. S. S. Lackawanna; first sponger of a gun. Displayed great coolness and exemplary behavior, eliciting the applause of his officers and the gun's crew.

JAMES B. CHANDLER.

Cockswain on board of the U. S. S. Richmond, Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864; commended for coolness and good conduct in the action in Mobile Bay, on the morning and forenoon of August 5, 1864. He deserves especial notice for having come off the sick-list, and going to and remaining at his quarters during the entire action. Joined the Brooklyn in November, 1861; was in the actions with Forts Jackson and St. Philip; the Chalmettes; batteries below Vicksburg; and present at the surrender of New Orleans. Joined the Richmond in September, 1863.

AUGUST CHANDRON.

Seaman apprentice, second class, of the U. S. S. Quinnebaug; for jumping overboard from that vessel at Alexandria, Egypt, on the morning of November 21, 1885, and, with the aid of Hugh Miller, boatswain's mate, rescuing from drowning William Evans, ordinary seaman.

LOUIS G. CHAPUT.

Landsman on board of the U. S. S. Lackawanna; remained at his gun after he was severely wounded until relieved by another person; was then taken below, and after reporting to the surgeon returned to his station at the gun and resumed his duties till the action was over, and was then carried below.

ROBERT T. CLIFFORD.

Master-at-arms on board of the U. S. S. Monticello; volunteered for duty on four occasions of danger, and was particularly conspicuous in charging a rebel force near New Topsail Inlet, N. C., August 22, 1863, and in destroying a rebel schooner. Promoted to acting master's mate.

PATRICK COLBERT.

Cockswain on board of the U. S. S. Commodore Hull. At the capture of Plymouth, October 31, 1864, was captain of the forward pivot-gun. Although painfully wounded by a shell, which killed a comrade at his side, he remained at his post until the close of the action, and appeared as cool during the engagement as if at target practice.

JOHN COLEMAN.

Private marine on board of the U. S. S. Colorado; fighting hand to hand with the enemy, and saving the life of Alexander McKenzie, Corea, June 11, 1871.

MICHAEL CONNOLLY.

Ordinary seaman on board of the U. S. S. Plymouth; gallantry in rescuing a citizen from drowning in the harbor of Halifax, Nova Scotia, on the 7th of August, 1876.

THOMAS CONNOR.

Ordinary seaman on board of the U. S. S. Minnesota. In the assault on Fort Fisher, January 15, 1865, charged up the palisades, and remained there when others were seized with a panic. He, with others, brought off a wounded officer from the field.

WILLIAM C. CONNOR.

Boatswain's mate on board of the U. S. S. Howquah, on the occasion of the destruction of the blockade runner Lynx, off Wilmington, September 25, 1864, at night. Performed his duty faithfully under the most trying circumstances, standing firmly at his post in the midst of a cross-fire from the rebel shore batteries and our own vessels.

DENNIS CONLAN.

Seaman on board of the U. S. S. Agawan; one of the crew of the powder-boat which was exploded near Fort Fisher, December 23, 1864, for which service he volunteered.

JOHN COOPER.

Cockswain on board of the U. S. S. Brooklyn, in the engagement in Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864. Very conspicuous for bravery, skill, coolness, and activity at his gun.

JOHN COOPER.

Quartermaster of Acting Rear Admiral Thatcher's staff. During the terrific fire at Mobile, on the 26th of April, 1865, at the risk of being blown to pieces by exploding shells, he advanced through the burning locality, rescued a wounded man from certain death, and bore him on his back to a place of safety. Entitled to wear a bar attached to the ribbon of the medal he had already received at Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864.

THOMAS E. CORCORAN.

Landsman on board of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, in an attack on the Vicksburg batteries, May 27, 1863; conspicuous for coolness and bravery under a severely accurate fire. "This was no ordinary case of performance of duty."

WILLIAM COREY.

Landsman on board of the U. S. S. Plymouth; heroic conduct in endeavoring to save the life of one of the crew of the Plymouth, who had fallen overboard from aloft, at the navy-yard, New York, July 26, 1876.

JOHN COSTELLO.

Ordinary seaman on board of the U. S. S. Hartford; gallantry in rescuing from drowning a landsman of that vessel, at Philadelphia, on the 16th July, 1876.

PETER COTTON.

Cockswain on board of the U. S. S. Baron DeKalb; mentioned by his commanding officer for having "distinguished himself in various actions."

H. C. COURTNEY.

Seaman on board the U. S. training-ship Portsmouth; for jumping overboard from that vessel at the Washington navy-yard, February 7, 1882, and rescuing from drowning Charles Taliaferro, jack-of-the-dust.

T. CRAMEN.

Boatswain's mate of the U. S. training-ship Portsmouth; for jumping overboard from that vessel at the Washington navy-yard, February 7, 1882, and rescuing from drowning Charles Taliaferro, jack-of-the-dust.

ALEXANDER CRAWFORD.

Fireman on board of the U. S. S. Wyalusing; volunteered May 25, 1864, in a night attempt to destroy the rebel ram Albemarle, in Roanoke

River, and, although it was unsuccessful, he displayed courage, zeal, and unwearied exertion on the occasion.

THOMAS CRIPPS.

Quartermaster on board of the U. S. S. Richmond, Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864; commended for coolness and good conduct as captain of a gun in the action in Mobile Bay, on the morning and forenoon of August 5, 1864. He was in the Brooklyn in the actions with Forts Jackson and St. Philip; the Chalmette batteries; batteries below Vicksburg; and present at the surrender of New Orleans. Joined the Richmond in September, 1863.

CORNELIUS CRONIN.

Chief quartermaster on board of the U. S. S. Richmond, Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864; commended for coolness and close attention to duty in looking out for signals and steering the ship in the action in Mobile Bay on the morning and forenoon of August 5, 1864. He has been in the naval service eight years. Joined the Brooklyn in December, 1861; was in the actions with Forts Jackson and St. Philip, and with the rebel iron-clads and gunboats below New Orleans; was in the action with the Chalmette batteries; present at the surrender of New Orleans; and in the attack on the batteries below Vicksburg, in 1862. Joined the Richmond in September, 1863. Afterwards appointed a Gunner in the navy.

GEORGE W. CUTTER.

Landsman on board of the U. S. S. Powhatan; jumped overboard at Norfolk, May 27, 1872, and aided in saving one of the crew of that vessel from drowning.

SAMUEL W. DAVIS.

Ordinary seaman, on board of the U. S. S. Brooklyn in the engagement in Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864; displayed much courage, bravery, and coolness in acting as a lookout for torpedoes and other obstructions.

JOSEPH H. DAVIS.

Landsman on the U. S. receiving-ship Dale, for jumping from the ferry-boat while off the wharf at Norfolk, Va., and rescuing from drowning John Normau, seaman, January 22, 1886.

JOHN DAVIS.

Ordinary seaman; for jumping overboard from the U. S. S. Trenton, at Toulon, France, February, 1881, and rescuing from drowning Augustus Ohlensen, cockswain.

JOHN DAVIS.

Quarter-gunner on board of the U. S. S. Valley City, in the attack on the enemy's vessels and a fort near Elizabeth City, N. C., February 10, 1862. When the vessel was on fire near the magazine, he seated himself on an open barrel of powder as the only means to keep the fire out.

CHARLES DEAKIN.

S. Richmond, Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864; commended for coolness and good conduct as captain of a gun in the action in Mobile Bay, on the morning and forenoon of August 5, 1864. He has been in the naval service twelve years; was on board the ship St. Louis, blockading off Pensacola and head of the passes of the Mississippi, until the expiration of his service, in 1861; reshipped the same year and joined the Brooklyn; was in the actions with Forts Jackson and St. Philip, and with the rebel iron-clads and gunboats below New Orleans; was in the action with the Chalmette batteries; present at the surrender of New Orleans; and on board the Brooklyn in the attack upon the batteries below Vicksburg, in 1862. Joined the Richmond in September, 1863.

JOHN DITZENBACK.

Quartermaster on board the U. S. monitor Neosho. During the engagement at Bill's Mills, on the Cumberland River, near Nashville, Tenn., December 6, 1864, the flag and signal staffs of the Neosho were shot away, and the flag lay drooping over the wheel-house. Under the fire of the enemy's artillery and musketry, this man went out of the pilot-house, recovered the flag, and tied it to the stump of the main signal staff, the highest mast remaining, being assisted by Pilot John H. Ferrell.

JOHN DONNELLY.

Ordinary seaman on board the U. S. S. Metacomet; was one of the boat's crew which, in charge of Acting Ensign H. C. Neilds, U. S. Navy, went to the rescue of the officers and crew of the U. S. monitor Tecumseh, when that vessel was sunk by a torpedo in passing the forts in Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864. This boat's crew, under their brave and gallant leader, went within a few hundred yards of one of the forts, under a fire which Admiral Farragut expressed as "one of the most galling" he ever saw, and succeeded in rescuing from death ten of the crew of the Tecumseh. Their conduct elicited the admiration of both friend and foe.

WILLIAM DOOLIN.

Coal-heaver on board the U. S. S. Richmond, Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864; commended for coolness and good conduct, and for refusing to leave his station as shot and shell passer, after having been knocked down and badly wounded in the head by splinters; and upon going to quarters the second time, he was found at his station, nobly doing his duty, in the action in Mobile Bay on the morning and forenoon of August 5, 1864. He was in Fort Pickens when it was bombarded by the rebels; was on board the Brooklyn in the actions with Forts Jackson and St. Philip; the Chalmettes; the rebel iron-clads and gunboats below New Orleans; the batteries below Vicksburg; and present at the surrender of New Orleans.

JOHN DORMAN.

Seaman on board of the U. S. S. Carondelet; although several times wounded, in various actions, has invariably returned to duty, presenting an example of constancy and devotion to the flag.

JAMES DOUGHERTY.

Private marine on board of the U. S. S. Benicia; for seeking out and killing the commanding officer of the Corean forces.

PATRICK DOUGHERTY.

Landsman on board of the U. S. S. Lackawanna; took the place of the powder-boy at his gun without orders, when the powder-boy was disabled; kept up a supply, and showed much zeal in his new capacity.

JOHN P. ERICKSON.

Captain of forecandle on board of the U. S. S. Pontoosuc; commended for gallantry, skill, and coolness in action, during the operations in and about Cape Fear River, which extended from December 24, 1864, to January 22, 1865, and resulted in the capture of Fort Fisher and Wilmington. Was severely wounded in the naval assault upon Fort Fisher.

WILLIAM FARLEY.

Boatswain's mate on board of the U. S. S. Marblehead, in the engagement with the rebel batteries on Stono River, December 25, 1863; distinguished for extraordinary energy and heroism in discharging his duties as first captain of 9-inch gun, setting a noble example of courage and devotion.

EDWARD FARRELL.

Quartermaster on board of the U. S. S. Owasco, in the attack upon Forts Jackson and St. Philip. "His intelligence, coolness, and capacity were conspicuous."

ISAAC L. FASSER.

Ordinary seaman of the U. S. S. Lackawanna; for rescuing from drowning William Cruise, who had fallen overboard, June 13, 1884, at Callao, Peru.

JOHN H. FERRELL.

Pilot on board of the U. S. monitor Neosho. During the engagement at Bell's Mills, on the Cumberland River, near Nashville, Tenn., December 6, 1864, the flag and signal staffs of the Neosho were shot away, and the flag lay drooping over the wheel-house. Under the fire of the enemy's artillery and musketry he went out of the pilot-house, recovered the flag, and tied it to the stump of the main signal staff, the highest mast remaining.

THOMAS FITZPATRICK.

Cockswain on board of the U. S. S. Hartford; in the engagement in Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864. "His gun was almost disabled by the bursting of a shell, which destroyed much of the material and killed seven men, besides wounding several others, and among them himself. Notwithstanding this, he had the killed and wounded quietly removed; replaced the breeching, side tackle, and truck, etc. (which had been cut to pieces), got a crew, and in a little while was firing the gun again as usual."

JOHN FLANNAGAN.

Boatswain's mate on board the U. S. S. Supply; for rescuing from drowning David Walsh, seaman, off Havre, France, October 26, 1878.

THOMAS FLOOD.

Boy on board of the U. S. S. Pensacola, in the attack upon Forts Jackson and St. Philip, and at the taking of New Orleans, April 24 and 25, 1862. "Assisted very materially by taking the duties of the signal quartermaster, who was shot down, which duties he performed with the coolness, exactitude, and fidelity of a veteran seaman." "Can not speak too warmly of Flood." "Intelligence and character of high order."

CHRISTOPHER FOWLER.

Quartermaster on board of the U. S. S. Fortune; gallant conduct off Point Zapotitlan, Mexico, May 11, 1874, on the occasion of the capsizing of one of the boats of the Fortune and the drowning of a portion of the boat's crew.

CHARLES H. FOY.

Signal quartermaster on board of the U. S. S. Rhode Island; commended for valuable services during the actions with Fort Fisher, and for excellent qualities.

FREDERICK FRANKLIN.

Quartermaster on board of the U. S. S. Colorado; assumed command of Company D, after Lieutenant McKee was wounded, and handled it with great credit until relieved.

WILLIAM J. FRANKS.

Belonging to the U. S. S. Marmora; was sent on shore with a crew to man a rifle howitzer which had been mounted on a field carriage and posted in the streets of Yazoo City during the rebel attack on that place, March 5, 1864. His defense of the gun against superior forces is mentioned as most gallant, having nobly stood his ground through the whole action, fighting hand to hand to save the gun and the reputation of the Navy. Promoted to acting master's mate.

MARTIN FREEMAN.

Pilot on board of the U. S. S. Hartford in the engagement in Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864; was the great reliance of the commanding officer of the Hartford in all difficulties in his line of duty. During the action he was in the maintop piloting the ships into the bay. Especially commended to the Department.

J. B. FRISBEE.

Gunner's mate on board of the U. S. S. Pinola, in the attack upon Forts Jackson and St. Philip, and the taking of New Orleans. "Berth-deck being on fire, he instantly closed the magazine and remained inside."

THOMAS HARCOURT.

Ordinary seaman on board of the U. S. S. Minnesota; especially commended for bravery in the assault on Fort Fisher, remaining at the front near the fort when the panic carried the mass away.

THOMAS HARDING.

Captain of forecastle, on board of the U. S. S. Dacotah, on the occasion of the destruction of the blockade-runner Pevensey, near Beaufort, N. C., June 9, 1864. "Learning that one of the officers in the boat, which was in danger of being and subsequently was swamped, could not swim, Harding remarked to him: 'If we are swamped, sir, I shall carry you to the beach, or I will never go there myself.' He did not succeed in carrying out his promise, but made desperate efforts to do so, while others thought of themselves only. Such conduct is worthy of appreciation and admiration—a sailor risking his own life to save that of an officer." Promoted to acting master's mate.

BERNARD HARLEY.

Ordinary seaman on board of the U. S. Picket Boat No. 1, which destroyed the rebel ram Albemarle at Plymouth, N. C., October 27, 1864.

DANIEL HARRINGTON.

Landsman on board of the U. S. S. Pocahontas; landing in a boat near Brunswick, Ga., March 11, 1862, and when fired upon by the enemy, concealed, exhibited great coolness and bravery. Promoted to acting master's mate.

DAVID HARRINGTON.

First-class fireman on board the U. S. S. Tallapoosa; at the time of the sinking of that vessel, on the night of August 21, 1884, remained at his post of duty in the fire-room until the fires were put out by the rising waters, and opened the safety-valves when the water was up to his waist.

JOHN HARRIS.

Captain of the forecastle on board the U. S. S. Metacomet; was one of the boat's crew which, in charge of Acting Ensign H. C. Neilds, U. S. Navy, went to the rescue of the officers and crew of the U. S. monitor Tecumseh when that vessel was sunk by a torpedo in passing the forts in Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864. This boat's crew, under their brave and gallant leader, went within a few hundred yards of the forts, under a fire which Admiral Farragut expressed as "one of the most galling" he ever saw, and succeeded in rescuing from death ten of the crew of the Tecumseh. Their conduct elicited the admiration of both friend and foe.
