No. 526.

[1ST SESSION.]

ON MAKING PROVISION FOR NAVAL SCHOOLS FOR MIDSHIPMEN, AND FOR INCREASING THE PAY OF CHAPLAINS AND SCHOOLMASTERS OF THE NAVY.

COMMUNICATED TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES JANUARY 3, 1834.

Mr. WATMOUGH, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, to whom the subject was referred, reported:

The Committee on Naval Affairs, taking into consideration the condition of the naval schools as at present established at Boston, New York, and Norfolk, and their inadequacy to effect the object proposed, deem it a duty to present to the House the accompanying bill. It is presumed no one will question the vital importance of these institutions to the service, both as it respects the well-being of the junior officers, and their future usefulness to their country.

By the subjoined letter (A) from the Secretary of the Navy, it will be found that there are 450 midshipmen in service. Of these, about one-half are supposed to be at sea; one-fifth on duty at shore stations; and the remaining 135 are on leave, waiting orders, on furlough, or sick. Admitting that of the latter class thirty-five are sick, and this would seem to be a very large proportion, there still remain one hundred youths left entirely to their own guidance, freed from those restraints so essential to their period
