

4. This communication is forwarded in the belief that it is a serious concern of the War Department and of particular interest to your office.

JOHN S. GULLET,
Colonel, G. S. C.,
Military Attache.

Encls. (2)
Ltr. 9/22/42
Ltr. 9/17/42

[Stamped:] Record Section Copy [hand written:] without inclosures.

Joint Army-Navy Board Report No. 10

(Published in a book entitled "You Take It Easy" by Joseph C. Green, published by Blaine and Schwab, Inc., New York, New York, 1938). This book is not being reviewed in these proceedings.)

Joint Army-Navy Board Report No. 10

Department of War

and

Department of Navy

Department of War, War Plans Division

Division

Department of Navy

December 10, 1942

Memorandum for the Board

1. Joint review of the Army and the Navy staffs for general purposes, for the joint review of the Army and Navy. These general purposes were as follows in the memorandum of 1941:

2. A few years ago it was pointed out in a specific article regarding the use of all or part of the Army and Navy of the United States. The article is entitled "You Take It Easy" by Joseph C. Green, New York, New York, 1938. This book is not being reviewed in these proceedings.

3. Report of the United States-Navy Staff Conference, dated March 10, 1941.

4. Army-Navy Board Report No. 10, dated March 10, 1941.

5. Army-Navy Board Report No. 11, dated March 10, 1941.

6. Army-Navy Board Report No. 12, dated March 10, 1941.

7. The Army-Navy Board Report No. 10, dated March 10, 1941, and the Army-Navy Board Report No. 11, dated March 10, 1941, and the Army-Navy Board Report No. 12, dated March 10, 1941, were approved by the Joint Army-Navy Board, dated March 10, 1941. The Army-Navy Board Report No. 10, dated March 10, 1941, and the Army-Navy Board Report No. 11, dated March 10, 1941, were approved by the Joint Army-Navy Board, dated March 10, 1941. The Army-Navy Board Report No. 12, dated March 10, 1941, was approved by the Joint Army-Navy Board, dated March 10, 1941.

8. A resolution was adopted by the Army-Navy Board, dated March 10, 1941, regarding the joint review of the Army and Navy. The resolution is entitled "You Take It Easy" by Joseph C. Green, New York, New York, 1938. This book is not being reviewed in these proceedings.

9. The resolution adopted by the Board, dated March 10, 1941, regarding the joint review of the Army and Navy.