COFFE

For past month Commander Second Fleet has been organizing a task force which comprises following units:

Second Fleet, Third Fleet including First and Second Base Forces and First Defense Division, combined Air Force, Desron Three, Airron seven, Schron Five and possible units of Baldiv Three from First Fleet.

In messages concerning these units South China Fleet and French Indo China force have appeared as well as the Naval Station at Samsu, Hako and Takao.

Third Base Force at Palao and Reso Palao have also been engaged in extensive communications with Second Fleet Commander.

Combined Air Force has assembled in Takao with indications that some components have moved on to Hainan.

Third Fleet units believed to be moving in direction of Takao and Hako.

Second Base Force appears transporting equipment of Air Force to Taiwan.

Takao radio today accepted traffic for unidentified Second Fleet unit and submarine division or squadron.

Cruiser Seven and Desron Three appear as an advance unit and may be en route South China.

There is believed to be strong concentration of submarines and air groups in the Marshalls which comprise Airron Twenty-four at least one carrier division unit plus probably one-third of the submarine fleet.
