December 6, 1941.

Memorandum for State Department.

Following report has been received from the Commander
in Chief Asiatic Fleet dated December 6th:

British Commander in Chief China reports a twenty five ship convoy escorted by 6 cruisers and 10 destroyers in Lat. 08 - 00 N. Long. 106 - 00 East at 0316 Greenwich time today. A convoy of ten ships with two cruisers and 10 destroyers were in Lat. 07 - 40 North Long. 106 - 20 East two hours later. All on course west. Three additional ships in Lat. 07 - 51 North Long 105 - 00 East at 0442 course 310°. This indicates all forces will make for Kohtron in Lat. 10 - 01 N. Long 104 East.
Commander in Chief Asiatic Admiral Hart's Scouting Force has sighted 30 ships and one large cruiser anchored in Camranh Bay.
