3. Michael A. Driscoll, Keywords and Abbreviations used in "An Annotated Bibliography of Submarine Literature".

   This is a list of the keywords (in the %K field) and abbreviations I have used throughout the bibliography. Feel free to make suggestions for new keywords if they will help you. Obviously, I can only add the keywords I know fit a particular source.
   Keywords:
   Submarine -- Dealing with the submarine side (versus ASW).
   ASW -- Dealing with anti-submarine warfare.
   Fiction -- obvious.
   Non-Fiction -- obvious.
   Juvenile -- Intended for a juvenile audience.
   WWI -- Covering the period of the First World War.
   WWII -- Covering the period of the Second World War.
   year range -- a range of years indicating the time period covered country -- Nationality of submarines discussed (US, German, Japanese) ocean -- Ocean of primary concern for the book.
   Submarine Name -- When a book focuses on a few submarines, the name of those submarines is included.
   Operations -- Dealing with operational aspects.
   Tactics -- Dealing with tactics.
   Technology -- Dealing with the technological aspects.
   Bibliography -- The work is a bibliography itself.
   Abbreviations:
   LOC -- Library of Congress Catalog number
   ISBN -- Whenever I knew, I have suffixed the ISBN with (C) to indicate hardcover (cloth) books or (P) to indicate paperbacks.
