

(Typical of each generating station)

Note: all voltages and currents represented at 1000 times their actual values, in order to best mimic a real electrical power system.

South stations

North stations