INTERVIEW AGREEMENT

The Southern Oral History Program is a component of the Center for the Study of the American South at UNC-Chapel Hill. Tape recordings and transcripts resulting from interviews conducted for the Program become part of the Southern Historical Collection of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where they will be made available for use consistent with the University's mission regulated according to any restrictions placed on their use by the interviewee and/or interviewer. Typical uses may include scholarly and other publications, audio/visual presentations (including production of CDs or DVDs), exhibits, and websites. Your consent to participate in this research as provided in this Agreement is entirely voluntary.

We, the undersigned, have read the above. The interviewer affirms that she/he has explained the nature and purpose of this oral history research. The interviewee affirms that she/he has consented to the interview. The interviewer and interviewee hereby give grant and assign all rights, title and interest, including copyright, of whatever kind from this information and interview to the University.
