

The Walker Percy Project

Providing ready access to materials and discussion opportunities for all audiences

In partnership with The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

www.ibiblio.org/wpercy

THE PROJECT IS DESIGNED to provide an introduction to Walker Percy and his thought for the novice or advanced reader by offering a wide range of online materials and discussion opportunities, such as:

MATERIALS

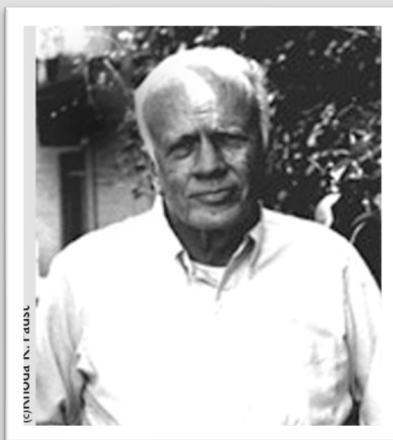

- Introductory readings
- Critical essays
- Remembrances / Memorials
- Multimedia
- Book descriptions
- Bibliographies

ACTIVITIES

- Listserv discussion
- Posting forum
- Interactive exhibits
- Scholarly news
- Educational resources
- And more ...

The Walker Percy Project has received recognition from: New Orleans Magazine, Times-Picayune, Austin American-Statesman, Texas Monthly, Southern Quarterly, Modern Language Association, and Southern Register, and other publications and events.

Access.
Discovery.
Discussion.

*In partnership with
The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill*

Further information:
Henry P. Mills, Director
wppdirector@gmail.com

Wish to engage in Percy discussion?

JOIN PERCY-L

Percy-L is the email-based discussion group dedicated to Percy topics and news. The listserv is open to all levels of readers and Percy enthusiasts.

Students, general readers, and scholars are all welcome, as well as the curious.

Join the Percy-L community, introduce yourself, and propose a topic of interest

Over 100+ active members worldwide...

PROMOTING WALKER PERCY'S LEGACY TO ALL READER LEVELS

Visit the Project's website to enjoy browsing, reading, and viewing its interactive learning exhibits.