

93D SIG AT WORK AND PLAY IN BAVARIA

(1) Focal point of XII Corps' communications was the Message Center in the Kaserne at Regensburg. (See diagram, p. 457.) Here Lt Alexander Perschel, Monroe, N Y, Signal Officer, and Pfc Ulysses E Graham, Knoxville, Tenn, stand outside the doorway. From here a network of wire, radio, and courier communications extended all over XII Corps' area of occupation. (2) The Danube River was background for much of the battalion's recreation. Pfc George Heineman, Eau Claire, Wis, of Co "A," 93d Sig Bn, gives a Fourth of July demonstration of how to skip a rope while rolling a log.
